GREAT NEWS...

Last Sunday was our 6th Sunday holding services in our new building! Thanks to many of you who sent us extra offerings, the renovation of the new building is basically finished. We have been so blessed to meet in a building which is not only large enough to house our existing congregation of approximately 35 people, but also plenty of room to expand. The new building is encouraging our folks to evangelize; to bring in new people to a very nicely renovated and spacious building. Since the inauguration of our services, we have had 6 first-time visitors with a high of 40 attending. There is still work to be done. We are presently working on renovating the church office as well as the kitchen. We have been mandated by city hall to install an expensive air extraction system for which we only have half-way completed it. There are still shelving cabinets to buy and install, and we are in great need of new auditorium seats as our wooden folding chairs are serviceable for now, but truly not adequate. All of this cost money for which we do not have right now. We will wait upon the Lord.

MORE GREAT NEWS...

For six years we have been training, preparing and praying for Valentin and Laura Lucaci and family to come join us in the work. Eight years ago, Valentin surrendered to the ministry under our ministry in Leganés, Madrid. June of 2016 he graduated from our Bible Institute. Last May he was ordained in our church in Leganés, and in June he and his family moved up here to Palencia to begin working with us as the associate pastor of the church. He will be filling in as the interim pastor as we go back to the states on furlough this month of August through March of next year. When we return in March 2017, Lord willing, we will begin the transition of the pastorate to Valentin.

UPCOMING FURLOUGH

As we have been mentioning in our previous correspondence, Therese and I are taking a six-month furlough starting the end of August through the first of March. We have already scheduled around 25 churches to report to while on furlough. I am trying to contact all those churches we did not visit our last furlough 2011/2012 to make sure we give them the first option of visit. If we have not already scheduled you, and you desire for us to visit; we will be more than happy to try to fit in your church into our schedule. Please, contact us through one of the methods listed in the box above.

Thank you for your prayers and financial support!

Serving Christ together,

Bill + Therese

P.S. Please check out a new video we have just released which is primarily for those churches which have helped us with a financial offering for the new building. Nevertheless, we encourage all our supporting churches to show it to their folks in order to encourage them in the continued financial support of our work. You will find a YouTube link on our web page listed above.
